NINETY-SEVENTH AUCTION SALE.

BOSTON:

T. R. MARVIN & SON, NUMISMATIC PRINTERS.

1889.

THE array of beautiful and rare Coins and Medals offered in the following pages cannot fail to appeal to the tastes of our more advanced Collectors, those men whose numismatic horizon is not bounded by dates of United States Cents or die-varieties of Half Dollars!

First comes a selection of very fine Denarii of ancient Rome, many bearing the portraits of the most illustrious personages of antiquity; then a complete series of the Medallie Thalers of Ludwig I, of Bavaria; after this, Mexican and Franco-American Coins and Medals, among which will be found a superb series of twenty-one, in silver and copper, of the rare historical tokens issued for French America during the reign of Louis XV; then the Collection of Mr. J. V. Palmer, condensed into a comparatively small space, and hence offering unusual opportunities to fill up cabinet drawers with good American Medals at a probable small cost. Following is a small but unrivalled series of beautiful and rare Ancient Coins of Greece and Rome, noticeable among which are the gold Stater of Ptolemy I, with quadriga of elephants on the reverse; the beautiful gold Medallion with busts of Ptolemy I and II and consorts; also, the very rare gold coins of Commodus, Maximianus Hercules and Justinus I; the Decadrachm of Syracuse, one of the finest specimens of this class ever offered here; and the silver Stater of Gortyna, type of a maid on a tree. At the end of the sale are two excessively rare coins of Robert II and III of Scotland, Pound and Half-Pound silver pieces of Charles I, and some exceedingly choice and quaint Crowns and Double Crowns of German Cities and States of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, all of which are of undoubted and positive authenticity.
